HOW MUCH LONGER?

We must possess the character quality of "endurance."

Dear Church Family,

I can hardly wait to get in that new building. But, there are delays. Every time we've built or as I've talked with others who build homes, churches, businesses, there always seem to be delays. The complexity of all the things that need to come together and the possibilities of things not working right are extremely big. So we experience delays trying to change, fix, rearrange, and rethink time after time until we get done. To complete any project as big as this church, we must possess the character quality of "endurance."

In the Bible, we are instructed about this concept in many of the words God uses to lead us in His way. Just a few of the words God often uses are "wait," "patience," "long-suffering," "diligence," "perseverance," "forbearance," and "endurance." Over and over again, God tells us in a multitude of circumstances and situations "not to give up." Often God seems to be telling us that His objective for us is not just some material goal like a new church building (the Promised Land, the Kingdom of Heaven, the relief from suffering, etc.) Rather, God seems to be intentionally making us wait and endure to do a work in our heart, our character, our attitude, or even our relationships.

God often seems to be more concerned than we are about our inner private life and changing it than He is about just getting things done through us.

In times of waiting or enduring, God often brings many verses to my mind. One that I'll never forget that God first brought to my attention 30 years ago is I Peter 5:10. It says, "And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you."

Wow! God is going to let me "suffer a little while," but if I can endure, He promises to use it to change me on the inside. But, I'm convinced that the changes happen only as I decide to trust Him and not be angry, bitter, afraid, hurt, resentful, revengeful, grumpy, arrogant, and self-reliant.

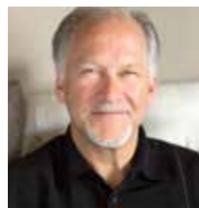

God loves us so much that He gives us situations to "endure" and won't stop trying to change us into the image of Christ. In the end, the endurance and the waiting are just what we needed.

We will get in our new building some day, but God is preparing us now by making us wait. So decide with me to let Him do His work in us by being patient and enduring and trusting Him. Be thankful that He continues to "endure" with us.

Love never fails,

Pastor Marty Berglund
Senior Pastor

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

The Marriage Ministry is hosting .... a Heartbeats Workshop:

"APOLOGY & FORGIVENESS"

FRI., JUNE 24 | 7:00 TO 9:00 P.M. | IN THE CHAPEL

Are you holding a grudge against your spouse and finding it difficult to forgive? Or perhaps you're keeping a long list of everything that is wrong with him or her? Or maybe you're the one who needs to learn how to apologize for a few things? Whether you are on the giving, receiving, or both sides of this equation, this workshop will help you understand the shattering effects that resentment and "keeping score" can have on a marriage. From there, you will understand how to create a Biblical roadmap that will help you and your spouse find a better way to apologize, forgive, and heal.

There is no fee, but registration is required. Space is limited.

There is no babysitting provided.

To register, go to www.myfac.org/register.

! COACHES NEEDED

FREED-UP FINANCIAL LIVING WORKSHOP

Saturdays, June 18; June 25; July 9 | 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. | Rooms C-03/04

When it comes to money, it's easy to let our hearts drift away from God—often without realizing it. Yet following God's direction in our finances is one of the surest ways to realize His peace and joy.

This three-session, nine-hour workshop helps individuals and couples at every stage of life effectively deal with day-to-day issues related to money. In this workshop, you'll get:

- A clear understanding of the wisdom the Bible imparts about money — earning, spending, saving, borrowing, and giving
- Simple steps to apply that wisdom in day-to-day decision making

• A personalized spending plan and the knowledge and motivation to follow it

Whether you're drowning in debt, just getting by, or richly blessed, the Freed-Up Financial Living workshop will help you become a more Biblically-rooted, confident steward of the financial resources that God has provided.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE Journey

Humility: the quality or state of not thinking you are better than other people.

I know some of you have taken on the spiritual practice of asking God for “one word” to shape your journey with Him each year. This is my second year of doing that. The first year’s word was “grace” – and oh my goodness, Jesus had much to teach me about that! By the end of the year, I felt like I still had so far to go that maybe I shouldn’t ask for a new word — just keep working on the old one. But as the year got underway, I felt like God was choosing a new word for me — “humility.” When I first sensed that, I seriously asked Him if I could have a different word — something a little less challenging! Because which one among us truly asks to be humbled, right?! But my reading and prayers over the last couple months affirmed that this was an area where God wanted me to focus.

A few weeks later I was reading in the Gospels and noticed something new in a passage that I’ve loved for years, Matthew 11:28-30. In these verses, Jesus describes Himself with just two words: “gentle” and “humble” of heart. As I pondered it, I realized that Jesus’ description lined up with the two words He’d chosen for me these past two years: “grace” (displayed by gentleness) and now “humility” (characterized by a humble heart).

Webster defines humility as “the quality or state of not thinking you are better than other people.” And the crazy thing is that Jesus — who is better than everybody else is the One who was willing to humble Himself and become like one of us. He who deserves the highest place was willing to take the lowest place.

That’s an idea that’s practically unthinkable to us human beings, right?! Our sinful natures helped train us from the cradle — how to look out for ourselves; how to make sure we’re getting what we want; how to get to the top of the pile. And then our culture stepped right in to reinforce our sinful bent with all its “me first,” “we deserve only the best,” and “you’re worth it” messages. The result: the world shuns humility and despises the low place. If you’re not sure if this is true, just watch the news tonight.

In Matthew 11, Jesus invites us to draw near to His gentle and humble heart because there we’ll find rest for our souls. Wow! Could it be possible that the lifelong struggle for the “high place” – all that effort we’ve spent climbing toward the top – striving to be smarter or richer or better than the next one – is exactly the thing that is making our souls so weary?! What if we could find contentment in humility instead of striving? What if we could learn to embrace a gracious spirit instead of pursuing a good self-image? Could it be that the low place would end up being the only place where we can truly find rest? I’m guessing that’s exactly what Jesus had in mind!

PASTOR JIM & JESS ENTWISTLE

CHURCH PLANTING IN LEHIGH VALLEY

After being on staff at FAC for the past seven years, Jim and Jess Entwistle have accepted a staff position at Hope Alliance Church in Bethlehem, PA. [www.hopealliancechurch.org] Jim will go on staff as an Associate Pastor while also receiving church planting training from the Eastern Pennsylvania District of the Christian & Missionary Alliance. The end goal is to plant a church in the Lehigh Valley with a core team of people coming from Hope Alliance. This model is called “Greenhouse Church Planting.”

A MESSAGE FROM JIM

The past seven years of being on staff at FAC have been wonderful. The decision to leave FAC and join Hope Alliance was not an easy one! But it has become clear to us and others that we are wired to go this route, and with the encouragement of Pastor Marty and other leaders we decided to pursue God’s call to be a senior pastor. We are very excited about the many new opportunities to share Jesus in the Lehigh Valley, but we’re also grieving leaving our church family.

In short: THANK YOU for letting us serve you and serve alongside you to reach the lost in this community and around the world. I am eternally grateful to my many volunteers — I say “my” because we’re a team, and I’ve loved being the coach. But the volunteers are the true rock stars that have overcome obstacles, pushed through the rough patches of inventing ministries, and have stayed the course to see so many amazing things get off the ground! I’ve simply stood on the sidelines equipping and cheering them on. I doubt I will ever find such an amazing team anywhere else. THANK YOU TEAM!!!

As we follow God’s call to plant a church to share Jesus in the Lehigh Valley, we will be putting a team together to stay connected, pray for us, and financially support us should you feel led. We will be holding some events where we’ll share more of the vision in the near future.

* Join us on June 15 at 7:00 p.m. at FAC to hear more and for Jim to say “thank you.”

* Be part of our support team. Let us know in person or via e-mail if you’re interested at jimentwistle1@gmail.com and we’ll be sure to follow up.

* If you’d like to financially support our endeavor, you can give online at <http://hopealliancechurch.org/giving/> and click on “Entwistle Church Plant” or send a check to Hope Alliance Church, PO Box 3455, Bethlehem, PA, 18017, with the memo “Entwistle Church Plant.”

Parents & Preschoolers

Preschoolers are making new discoveries every day. They want to know about their world. They want to name it, smell it, touch it, explore it, listen to it – which is probably why they ask so many questions and get "into" so many things.

Well, this month and next we want our preschoolers to ask away! We want them to explore, make discoveries and learn about the world around them. More than anything, we want them to walk away knowing that God made the world around them by teaching this one simple bottom line: God made everything!

Activities

Go outside on a sunny day and look for shadows. Talk about how light makes shadows and God made light.

Take your child stargazing. Talk about how God made the sun, moon and stars. God is so powerful to make all of that.

What better way to talk about how God made land than by digging and playing in dirt! Gather some toy shovels or spoons and go for it!

Take turns as a family answering the question, "What would you like to thank God for making?"

COUNT ALL THE DIFFERENT KINDS OF THINGS GOD CREATED. FILL IN THE CHART BELOW.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MINISTRY

List three things you want to do for Jesus this week.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Write a few sentences telling why you think Jesus would like you to do these things.

VENTURE

MAKING DECISIONS

FACING CHALLENGES

LEARNING HOW TO KNOW WHERE GOD
FITS INTO ALL THAT UNCERTAINTY

Those of you between the ages of 18-23 are certainly within one of the most exciting periods of your entire life, filled with independence, freedom and boundless opportunity. And still, each unfamiliar turn can be a big challenge when living it for the first time. Where should you go for advice and where will that advice lead you when so many questions compete for your attention?

Throughout life, you will always find incredible value in facing challenges like these in a community of friends and peers. More than just people going through the same things at the same time, they become an extension of your family.

This is exactly what Venture 18//23 is all about. Venture 18//23 is a community of young men and women "doing life" together; building genuine relationships, influencing one another, making decisions, and facing challenges.

Most importantly, you grow to understand where God leads us in all that uncertainty.

If you are just graduating from high school or you are getting settled down from another year at college, Venture 18//23 is where you should check in first. Two amazing summer events have been planned that should give you, along with your current and future friends, a place to land after this long semester. Take advantage of the time to get to know each other before our September kick-off!

Oh, you're leaving for school before September? Not an issue. Venture 18//23 was designed knowing that some of you will be leaving the area for a while. Ours is a community that is committed to one another rather than to a strict time and place. Plug in this summer, and we will make sure you never feel far from home. Then upon your return, you will ease right back into those friendships without missing a beat.

Make plans now to join us for both of these summer events. The first will be on Fri., July 8; the second will be on Fri., Aug. 5. Both are all-day events, and details are coming so make plans to be there!

For more information and to sign up for regular updates, contact Bryan and Lisa Russell at venture1823@comcast.net.

"EXPLORING SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINES" A TWO-DAY EVENT SPONSORED BY THE DEEPENING GROUPS MINISTRY

Guest speaker, Jan Johnson

June 11, 2016: 7:45 a.m. to noon
FAC Sanctuary

An interactive life with God invites us to connect with God in intentional ways so that we open space in our lives for the worship of God. These ways are often called spiritual disciplines or exercises. They are not harsh, but grace-filled ways of responding to the presence of Christ with our lives and bodies. The purpose of the spiritual disciplines is not to produce super-Christians, but to foster intimacy with God. This two-day event will be an opportunity to hear a gifted speaker and teacher help us explore our life In Christ.

Our speaker will be Jan Johnson, the author of 21 books and many magazine articles. Everything she writes flows out of three areas: spiritual formation, partnering with God to care for the voiceless, and living with purposeful intentionality. [<http://janjohnson.org>]

For more information, contact Debbie Schneck, 609-953-7333, x125, or debbie@myfac.org.

The Book of Ruth
What is Love? The Unseen Hand of God

Our culture teaches us that love is a feeling and when we don't feel it, there is no love. What does the Bible say about love? Jesus said, "Greater love has no man than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." (John 15:13) He also said, "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:43) To Jesus, love requires commitment and sacrifice. But what does this kind of love look like in everyday life? Through a four-week study of the Book of Ruth, we will see this type of love lived out in the life of a Moabite woman and learn what is meant by the teaching, "Love never fails."

- Week 1: Love Commits | Sat., June 4 or Mon., June 6
- Week 2: Love Serves | Sat., June 11 or Mon., June 13
- Week 3: Love takes Risks | Sat., June 18 or Mon., June 20
- Week 4: Love Changes Others | Sat., June 25 or Mon. June 27

EVERY MAN'S BATTLE, A PASTORAL CARE GROUP

Meets every Thursday at 7:00 p.m.

If you are a man of any age, then you are in this battle. Statistics from many different studies, secular and faith-based, tell the sad story. The surprising fact is that there is little difference in the numbers, whether or not you are an evangelical Christian. You are not as alone as you think because studies show that seven out of ten men admit that they struggle with some form of sexual or pornographic addiction. The average age that this battle begins is 11. For many, by the time you experience its debilitating effects on your job, your marriage, and all other relations with the opposite sex, it may seem too late to just stop.

But there is hope, and there is a way to fight and win this battle, but it's not by yourself. The key is an accountability group. Here you can be your true, broken self as you struggle together with other men learning the tools to overcome this slave master. You can allow God's Holy Spirit to work to help free you to serve Him with the gifts He has given you. God needs healthy soldiers on the front lines in His army. Don't sit on the sidelines, defeated.

IN THE LIFE OF JOSH STREET

BROKEN, BUT NOT DEFEATED

Saturday morning of March 25, 1995, changed Josh Street's life forever. It is a day that he'll never forget. A day Josh relives over and over in his memories.

"Growing up, my father was always helping others. He was a church deacon who was a big, tough, outdoors type of guy with an expertise in everything mechanical. If you had a problem, you called my dad. One day, friends asked him to help them use a chainsaw to take off branches of a very large oak tree in their back yard. The night before, my dad asked me if I wanted to come with him the next day to help out. I had just turned seventeen, and like most teenagers, I didn't feel like getting up early and lugging around wood all day out in the cold. So I said, 'no.' I didn't realize at the time that declining the invitation would later haunt me."

Early the next morning, Josh woke up to the sound of his dad leaving the house. "For some reason, I decided to get up and crack my window shade to see him shuffle down the steps, stroll out to his truck, and drive away. Then I went back to sleep, not knowing that would be the last time I ever saw my father walk."

A few hours later, Josh awoke again. This time it was to the sound of a phone ringing and his mother having an urgent conversation. "She came into my room and told me, my brother, and sister that dad was in an accident, and we had to leave right away. We rushed to the scene of the accident, unaware it was much worse than we thought."

When Josh and his family arrived, they saw an alarming scene of ambulances, firetrucks, and police cars. "Dad was being loaded into an ambulance and rushed to the helicopter to be flown to Cooper Hospital in Camden. We still didn't know the extent of what happened until we arrived at Cooper and were briefed by a doctor."

Josh soon learned that his dad was about twenty feet up on a ladder without a safety strap, cutting a branch. The branch he was cutting violently snapped and crashed back into the ladder. As a result, Josh's dad was thrown into the air and fell to the ground on his head. The fall caused him to become paralyzed from the neck down.

"My dad was admitted to the trauma unit at Cooper. I wasn't allowed to see him until the next night. The hospital nurses said they had never seen so many people in a waiting room at once. There were about forty of us. However, even surrounded by many friends and loved ones, I was numb. For the first time in my life I didn't know what to say. When it was my turn to see my dad, I walked into the trauma unit and finally realized how dire his situation was. There he was. A 6' 4," 260-pound man who was so strong but now couldn't take on anything. He was strapped to a bed, helpless, fragile, and broken. He was surrounded by machines and had many tubes coming out of his body, including a ventilator down his throat. His head was screwed into a large metal cage to keep it firmly in place."

Josh was so horrified about what he saw that he fainted and dropped to the floor. "I woke up a few moments later to the sound of my dad faintly rasping my name around the ventilator tube. I stood up and took in the scene again, quite embarrassed for passing out. For the second time in my life in the same day, I didn't know what to say. What can you say to someone in that situation but that you love them?"

From that day forward, life was never the same for Josh. After his dad was stabilized and moved out of the trauma unit, he was transferred to Magee Rehabilitation Hospital in Philadelphia. "I had to become the man of the house, juggle going to school, working part-time, and visiting my dad and mom at Magee four to five times a week."

Josh also had to be trained on how to give his dad physical therapy. "It was the most difficult and challenging time of my life. Responsibilities were thrust upon me that most teenagers will never experience. However, the accident brought many people into our lives who blessed us with their kindness and assistance. It was a time where God showed us that even in the midst of adversity, He would always take care of our needs. There were countless times when we had a very specific need that we thought we had no hope of obtaining. Every single time, God provided for those needs, sometimes down to the very cent."

Since the accident, Josh has watched his dad suffer with many health issues due to being a quadriplegic. He's experienced and continues to endure severe pressure sores, unending muscle spasms, low blood pressure, gastro and circulatory problems, constant back pain, and even colon cancer.

"My dad's life is a never ending form of torture. He's in a wheel chair, unable to move, and unable to feed himself. He can still feel pain everywhere. I think that most people in this situation would be hopeless and want to give up on life. However, my dad has Jesus. He has the hope that one day he will be restored in a new body in the presence of God. This is what keeps him going and what keeps the depression at bay. He could never bear this burden without hope in God. Of course he still has his bad days, but his faith eventually pulls him out of those valleys and helps him to live in that hope."

Through it all, Josh's dad has always tried to be a Godly example. Josh is thankful that his father and mother were the ones who helped encourage him to accept Christ into his heart when he was seven years old during family devotions.

One of the powerful Bible stories that Josh learned was about the Apostle Paul asking God to take away his thorn in the flesh (2 Corinthians 12). Similarly, Josh has prayed often for his father to be healed; however, just like with Paul, God's answer was always no. "I have no idea why God allowed my dad to become a quadriplegic and live in constant pain, but I do know that He loves us and wants us to grow. Growth sprouts from adversity and is cultivated from how we deal with trials.

It's been twenty-one years since the accident and Josh's faith has grown tremendously. "Seeing my dad's faith and the absolute selfless love my mother shows in taking care of him has greatly affected my life. It has changed the way I view the world and brought me into a clear perspective of what really matters. It's taught me the true meaning of God's providence and how His love can work miracles. Now as a father myself, I hope to communicate this to my own children. No matter what adversity we face in life, God still loves us more than we can imagine."

TWO MISSIONS REPORTS

FROM OUR MISSIONARIES IN SOUTH AFRICA & SOUTHERN ASIA

FASA [Fellowship Alliance South Africa]

An update from Jesse and Meredith Sincock

Greetings from The FASA Island! I, Jesse, like to refer to it as the “magical ministry land.” We wanted to relay a brief message as we have been here just over a month.

The March FAC team was incredibly dedicated and focused on the ministry and the kids, as well as devoted to each other. God used that team in a big way for Meredith and me to start off our time in South Africa with lots of encouragement and peaceful hearts. Having Jim, Tammy, Jenn, and Rodney with us on the flight was also a true blessing. We are so thankful for the warm send-off and help as we moved here!

In the past weeks since the team left, we have been juggling several different tasks. Here are few highlights:

- We’ve gotten into two schools already on a weekly basis, in addition to attending the Student Christian Organization group at another school.
- We’ve made an exciting connection with a pastor who is from Cape Town and has a true heart for seeing all of Lephalale reached with the Gospel!
- We’ve finally moved onto the island and are enjoying the echoes of the bare rooms until furniture arrives in the container.
- Jenn has been a great help in passing the torch to us and connecting us with people she knows. We are praying that God shows us how to love all the people groups within our reach, and we are praying God does a work through the churches here to change Lephalale for His glory.
- In the schools, our talks have focused on the question, “Am I Loved?” and we were able to share that the Bible is the only truth, and that God loves all of these kids.

We wish you could all experience the exciting moments of ministry with us. We are deeply thankful for how supportive you are to us. Thanks for your texts and e-mails and, most of all, your prayers.

For information on how to contact Jesse and Meredith, send an e-mail to Jim Walter, jtwalter@me.com.

Our Vision

We want people to hear God's call and follow it.

Our Mission

We want to help people connect to God,
to His people, and to His work.

Our Core Values

Lost people matter to God. He wants them found.

~Luke 19:10

Prayer is the primary work of the people of God.

~Philippians 4:6,7

Everything we have belongs to God.
We are only stewards.

~1 Chronicles 29:14

Knowing and obeying God's Word is fundamental to all true success.

~Joshua 1:8

Without the empowering of the Holy Spirit, we can accomplish nothing.

~1 Corinthians 2:4,5
