Everyone move your snowy friend to the dark blue snowflake.

Can you open up your heart and pray to God if you are riding in a car? (Yes)

You got it! You can get quiet and open up your heart to God by praying anywhere you go!

Everyone put your snowy friend on the light blue snowflake.

If your snowy friend is scared to go down the hill, can your friend pray and ask God for help? (Yes)

You got it! God hears us when we pray, and He will help us!

On the count of three, let's make our snowy friends slide down the hill. One, two, three, wheeee! (Everyone will make snowy friends slide down the hill)

Let me see your snowy friends move to the yellow snowflake.

Is there anyone else sitting on this bench? (No)

No! This looks like it would be a great place to get quiet and open up your heart to God in prayer!

Everyone slide your snowy friends up to the green snowflake.

Let me hear you make the sound of the animal that's close to you there. (Everyone will bark like a dog)

That's it! You sound like a dog! Does God want to talk to dogs or to you and me? (You and me)

Yes! God loves you, and He wants to talk to you. He loves to hear you open your heart and talk to Him, too.

Everyone move your snowy friend over to the red snowflake.

Who made the trees and snow that your friend sees? (God)

Yes! When we open up our hearts to God and pray, we can tell Him, "Thank You," for making all the beautiful things we see.

On the count of three, let's say, "Thank You, God!" One, two, three! (Everyone will say, "Thank You, God!")

Now move your snowy friend on up to the purple snowflake.

If your snowy friend is cold, should he stay outside or go inside? (Go inside)

Yes! The Bible tells us that God loves you and wants to give you all you need to live, like a home and food to eat.

We can open up our hearts to God and ask Him for the things we need to live each day.

Move your snowy friend over to the girl skiing near the brown snowflake.

If the girl bumped into you with her skis, should you push her or forgive her? (Forgive her)

That's right! Jesus died on a cross to forgive us for all the wrong things we do. When we pray, we can ask God to forgive us for the wrong things we do and to help us forgive people who do wrong things to us!

Have you ever been ice skating? (ALLOW responses)

Move your snowy friend to the pink snowflake and have them skate around.

Ice is frozen water. Who made the ice your friend is skating on? (God)

Yes! God made the water, because He knew we would need it. When we pray, it's good to tell God that we want what He wants, because He knows what we need!
