Gage loves to sled. Gage's mom told him he could go sledding, but he could NOT go down on his tummy. After sledding, Gage's mom asked him, "Did you sled down the hill on your tummy?" Gage said, "No ma'am."

If you think Gage told his mom the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. If you think Gage told his mom a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. (Kids show RED LIGHT.)

That's right! Even if it is hard or you are scared you might get in trouble, God wants us to tell the TRUTH!

Jessie wanted to go skating but his mom said he had to clean his room first. Jessie quickly cleaned his room and told his mom, "All done!"

If you think Jessie told his mom a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. If you think Jessie told his mom the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. (Kids show GREEN LIGHT.)

Hooray! Way to go! Let's all say what we Need to Know together so we can remember:

I Can (thumbs to chest)
Tell The Truth! (cup hands around mouth)

Desmond loves to make snow angels but his friends don't like to. When his friends saw the snow angel in the yard, they asked, "Did you make that, Desmond?"

Desmond said, "I sure did! It was so fun!"

If you think Desmond told his friends a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. If you think Desmond told his friends the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT.

(Kids show GREEN LIGHT.)

Way to go! Let's all say what we Need to Know together so we can remember:

I Can (thumbs to chest)

Tell The Truth! (cup hands around mouth)

Bradley had never skied before but wanted to ski down the biggest hill! The ski teacher asked him if he had skied before and Bradley said, "YES!"

The ski teacher let Bradley ski down the big hill. On the way down, Bradley fell and got hurt!

If you think Bradley told the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. If you think Bradley told a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. (Kids show RED LIGHT.)

That's right! We can hurt ourselves and others when we tell a lie. God wants us to tell the TRUTH!

Sophia wanted to use her sister's scarf to make a snowman. Sophia's sister said, "No," but Sophia was sneaky and took the scarf anyway. When her sister asked, "Did you take my scarf?" Sophia said "No."

If you think Sophia told her sister the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. If you think Sophia told her sister a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. (Kids show RED LIGHT.)

That's right! Even if it is hard or you are scared you might get in trouble, God wants us to tell the TRUTH!

Peppy Penguin was sliding on the ice when he crashed into his mom's favorite fish bowl. The bowl broke in half. Peppy's mom asked, "Peppy did you break my bowl?" Peppy said, "No mommy."

If you think Peppy told his mom the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. If you think Peppy told his mom a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. (Kids show RED LIGHT.)

That's right! Even if it is hard or you are scared you might get in trouble, God wants us to tell the TRUTH!

Cal and Philip were having a snowball fight with their friends. Cal threw a snowball and it hit his dad. Cal's dad asked, "Cal, did you hit me?" Cal said, "Yes. I am so sorry."

If you think Cal told his dad a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. If you think Cal told his dad the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. (Kids show GREEN LIGHT.)

Hooray! Let's all say what we Need to Know together so we can remember:

I Can (thumbs to chest)

Tell The Truth! (cup hands around mouth)

Marty Moose wanted to run and play in the snow. His mom told him he had to finish his lunch before he could go out and play. Marty ate all of his lunch and said, "I'm finished!"

If you think Marty told his mom a LIE, show me your RED LIGHT. If you think Marty told his mom the TRUTH, show me your GREEN LIGHT. (Kids show GREEN LIGHT.)

Hooray! Let's all say what we Need to Know together so we can remember:

I Can (thumbs to chest)Tell The Truth! (cup hands around mouth)

