JAN

JANUARY 9 | 6:00 PM | WORSHIP CENTER

Plans have been made for an impactful start to 2022, but before the kick-off, we are commanded to submit our plans to the Lord (James 4:15). Scripture teaches us that God knows what we need before we ask (Matthew 6:8) but He delights in being asked humbly for great movements (James 5:16-17). Since a great move of God's Spirit is what we are looking for, we are calling an all-church prayer meeting and time of worship to kick off the winter semester.

April 17 | 8:30, 10:00, & 11:30 AM

Jesus told every Christian to be baptized. If you are a Christian and you haven't been baptized, it's your time! Baptism doesn't make you a Christian; only God does that. Therefore, it's important to know you are a Christian before you are baptized.

If you are a parent with a child who wants to be baptized, pick up a baptism guide for parents at the information desk. Everyone else is encouraged to attend the baptism preparation class to prepare for baptism.

Baptism Preparation Class

March 20 | 11:00 AM | The Barn Room 1 | Register Online

Learn about the baptism process, study biblical baptism, and have your questions answered. Sign up for this class to be baptized at Fellowship Alliance Chapel during worship services on Easter. To register for the baptism class, please visit myfac.org/baptism.

The Road to Hope

Jenny and I set out on a nine hour drive to pick up our youngest son from college and bring him home for Christmas. We left before breakfast with full travel mugs of coffee (and tea for Jenny) and decided to keep driving until lunch. As lunch approached, we were a little hungry—but not hungry enough to settle for a tuna sandwich from a travel stop vending machine or a Roy Rogers burger. We had something more satisfying in mind.

As the drive went on and rest stop after rest stop passed by, we got hungrier but refused to pull over. Deep down we were holding out hope that one of our stops would have a truly satisfying and heavenly lunch—a Chick-fil-A original chicken sandwich with sweet tea. As the miles went by and the clock reached 2:00 p.m., we gave up hope for the original chicken sandwich and, in weakness, defiled ourselves with McDonald's.

The Apostle Paul addresses the challenge we face about something much more important than our hunger at noon and the temptation to settle for low-quality fast food. He points to our deep spiritual hunger for true intimacy with the God of all splendor, holiness, and love.

“ Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. — 2 Corinthians 7:1

How can a Christian pursue a life that is growing in spiritual holiness and bodily moral purity?

How can we avoid staining our character by gratifying our desires with things that God despises? I hope you are seeking the answer to these questions in this new year.

The answers are not in stoicism—killing off our desires, and they are also not in the cult of self-love—pampering our every desire. The answers are in what John Piper has called Christian Hedonism—taking our desires at full volume to God where He has ordained to satisfy and bring them to completion in the joy, pleasure, and beauty of intimacy with the Lord Jesus Christ.

“...I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people...then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty.” (2 Cor 6:16-18)

These promises are worth waiting for. What they will bring is too honorable to be traded away for momentary and synthetic versions of what He has promised us. Jesus promised that while we patiently wait for those, God the Holy Spirit will be poured out in our hearts (Rom 5:5), giving to us a small portion of the real joy, pleasure, and satisfaction of closeness with God in heaven, while leaving us so that we still long for Him to come (Eph 1:14). Satisfied, yet aching for Him, is the Christian life.

This Spirit-sourced pleasure is authentic, so that even a small drop of the real thing is more rich than unlimited gallons of synthetic peace, joy, courage, or love. Is there anything you are turning to for false peace, or fast-food joy, or a shallow sense of worth? No matter how much of it you could ever get, it will never satisfy you the way the real thing from God will. Let's listen to Paul, drive by the McDonald's of our society, and hold tightly to God's true promises. One day, we will fully have the real thing, and we will see Him as He is. (1 John 3:2)

In 2022, may we say with the Apostle John, “Amen. Come Lord Jesus.” (Rev 22:20)

FIND SUPPORT

The challenges confronting us today are complex. We face issues that can drag us and our families down. Support groups offer help to move us toward the only real answer—a relationship with God. Finding a support group for addictions and emotional needs may be the most important step in your recovery journey. Joining with others in similar circumstances brings hope and an understanding of the necessary steps to take. Most importantly, all of our care groups point to Jesus and His power to heal.

It takes courage in our culture to stand up for the most basic beliefs of our Christian faith. Yet, believers of all ages are called to be prepared and unashamed in responding to secular culture with the truth of the Gospel. Could you use more confidence in talking about your faith and skillfully sharing Christ? This conference will give you clear and practical ways to confront the myths of our culture and root yourself in a Gospel identity.

THE Gospel Movement IN UKRAINE

Ben and Kristy Williams with their children Marissa and Dylan

Fifteen years ago, Ben and Kristy Williams would not have predicted that their Christian ministry would be part of a massive movement of the Gospel in Ukraine. Since the fall of communism, several countries in Eastern Europe still view themselves as receiving missionaries and aid rather than equipping their people to give to missions, go to the lost, and pray for God's work around the world. This is what makes Josiah Venture's ministry unique—equipping Ukrainians to go out into the world and proclaim the Gospel.

Ben and Kristy Williams have been a part of Josiah Venture for the past 14 years, and for the last 10 years they led the team in Lviv, Ukraine. The vision of Josiah Venture is to see a movement of God among the youth in Central and Eastern Europe that will transform society. For almost 30 years, God has used Josiah Venture to train up young leaders to fulfill Christ's commission through the local church by fostering a culture of disciple-making. Every aspect of their mission is committed to sharing the Gospel with young people and training up the next generation of Christ followers.

They reach young people by hosting evangelistic English camps and sports camps and serving in public schools. They follow the example of Jesus from John 1, when He calls the early disciples to come and see where He lives and what He does. Kristy says, "We call young people from high schools and neighborhoods to come see and experience a group or an event. It shows how Christians live." They strive to build relationships with youth, share the Gospel with them, and then connect them with local churches where they are discipled. "Young people are attracted to events and camps, and we have found that God has produced fruit through them."

Three years ago, one girl, Ira Mishal, came to an English club at Ben and Kristy's church, Ekklesia. She was invited to the club by her friend, Diana Gurshal, who came to know Jesus through a school choir program and started sharing her faith with her university friends. Ira responded to Diana's invitation and fell in love with the warmth of the people there. She returned again and again, eventually learning that they were believers. Ira had always thought of herself as a Christian because it was her family's tradition, but she didn't know Jesus. Her mom and grandmother had encouraged her to read the Bible as a child, but she didn't do it often. As a teenager, she had occasionally felt a pulling at her heart but did not understand it was the Lord until she attended the English club. The more they talked about Jesus at the club, the more Ira wanted to learn.

Ira decided to start going to Sunday services at Ekklesia and now attends frequently. In April of 2021, the church group began to watch the television series The Chosen. Ira also attended a Bible study the Williamses led on the four spiritual laws. Each week she learned more about Jesus and what it really means to be a follower of Christ.

"As all of these pieces came together, she realized she was becoming alive. Ira now considers herself a follower of Jesus," Kristy says. Ira is not afraid to share her faith and believes it is an honor to spread the Word to others as she serves the Lord. She now prays for her mom, her dad, her neighbor, and another group member.

Ira is one of many students whose lives have been changed through Ben and Kristy's ministry. They have seen many young people come to Christ at these camps, be discipled at local churches, and go on to be trained in full-time ministry. Over the last five years the number of students at their local seminary has tripled. This is in part because of their efforts and also because of a new visionary seminary president.

Please pray for Ben and Kristy and the Josiah Venture mission as they seek to grow in boldness in sharing the Gospel in Ukraine. Pray also for students at the local public schools to come to Jesus. Lastly, pray that God will provide additional resources to build training centers that will facilitate more growth among the youth of Ukraine.

WE'RE HIRING!

Fellowship Alliance Chapel is looking to identify the man who God has called to lead our ministries of evangelism, local cultural renewal, and global missions. The Gospel is the power of God at work at the deepest level, and it brings transformation not only to individuals but also to culture. It can sweep through a city, a county, and a country. That is what we are praying for in our day. Are you seeking the same thing?

CHILDREN'S CURRICULUM: PRESCHOOL & ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

JANUARY – APRIL

The Gospel Project

From Captivity to the Wilderness in Exodus and Numbers:

Through a series of miracles, God had delivered His people from bondage in Egypt. The Israelites headed into the wilderness on their way to the land of promise. Their journey, however, was not just to move them from one place to another; it was also to be a time when their hearts were to be moved in worship for their God, their true Rescuer.

From Conquest to Kingdom in Joshua and 1 Samuel:

The Israelites' journey proves that God providentially guides and cares for His people. Israel's victory over Jericho and God giving His people the land show that God can and will perform miracles. And when the Israelites kept sinning and responding to God with disobedience, God showed that He takes sin seriously but also offers redemptive grace. Our kids will be reminded of the One in whom all our hope lies—Jesus Christ.

Key Passages (ESV):

"God is not man, that he should lie... Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it?"
—Numbers 23:19

"Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!" —Psalm 95:6

"LORD... Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders?" —Exodus 15:11

"Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."
—Psalm 119:105

"You are the God who works wonders; you have made known your might among the peoples." —Psalm 77:14

NEW STAFF PROFILE

Jackie Schaefer

Jackie Schaefer grew up in Marlton, graduated from Cherokee High School, and attended Thomas Edison University for Organizational Leadership.

Previously, Jackie worked for Young Life, a high school outreach ministry, from 2015-2021. She has also been involved in various ministries at FAC including high school youth group, the worship team, guest services, the missions board, and most recently the pastor search team.

Jackie started working at FAC in October 2021 as an executive assistant to Senior Pastor, Seth McCoy. She is excited to provide Pastor Seth with the support he needs so he can focus his time, energy, and gifts on leading our congregation.

Jackie married her high school sweetheart, Jeff, and they live in Tabernacle, New Jersey, with their two children, Theodore and Adelaide. She’s passionate about her family, the next generation, and coffee.

I love Ephesians 2:8-10: “For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.” (ESV) I’ll always be amazed by God’s grace, and how we are lavished with what we don’t deserve. This verse reminds me of the sweet truth that I can’t earn my salvation or disqualify myself from it by my works. Rather, our salvation is a gift given with no prerequisite other than God’s own purpose. Dwelling on how the Lord has ordained our calling to Jesus before time even began is remarkable to say the least! – Jackie Schaefer

GIVING

“One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.” –Proverbs 11:24

We should not be surprised that life itself gets behind generosity and pushes against greed because God is generous and He made everything. Since the church is God’s household, His values are what we desire and find beautiful. God did not spare giving His only begotten Son for His household (Romans 8:32); we should respond fittingly. Let us not shortchange ourselves from all the blessings that flow from generous giving.

DONATE WOMEN'S CLOTHING

GROWING IN CHRIST THROUGH LOVE, SERVICE, & COMMUNITY

NEW TO FELLOWSHIP?

No matter what your story is or where you are on your spiritual journey,

Fellowship is a place where you can belong, grow in your understanding of who God is,

and find ways to serve Him.

Stop by the information desk after any worship service to learn more about how to get connected.
